

The following sites provide full-text access to a variety of ebooks. These sites are freely available on the Internet, so if you are off-campus, you will not be required to type in your Asbury login and password to search them.

- HathiTrust Digital Library

Provides full-text access to over 3.5 million books (published before 1923), and the ability to search a total of over 10 million books.

- Internet Archive

Provides full-text access to over 3.5 million books.

- Google Books

Provides bibliographic access to millions of books, some with full-text access for free, many others with preview snippets.

- Directory of Open Access Books

Provides full-text access to over 1,200 academic peer-reviewed books.

- Project Gutenberg

The first producer of ebooks, with over 40,000 public domain titles available.

- OAPEN

Provides full-text access to humanities and social sciences titles published in Europe; presently has over 200 titles in English.

- Christian Classics Ethereal Library

Provides full-text access to hundreds of classic Christian books.